HISTORICAL NOTE

The Springfield record is a small volume, 7 3/4 inches wide by 6 1/4 inches long, containing at present (1921) 192 pages. The book was begun by Jacob Riess on July 13, 1760, when he entered on the last page of the book an inventory of the communion set of the congregation.

The book contains almost exclusively baptismal entries, which run from August 24, 1760 to July 12, 1829. There are two lists of catechumens; of the years 1781 and 1797 at the rear of the book.

The congregation first met in the house of Christian Schug, who qualified in Philadelphia, August 27, 1739. Schlatter preached at Springfield or "Schuggenhaus" on June 30, 1747. John Conrad Wirtz was then the pastor of the congregation.

The first log church when erected stood on the land and close to the house of Christian Schug who was present at the meeting of the first Coetus, September 29, 1747, at Philadelphia.

Trinity, or Springfield Church, is now located near Pleasant Valley, Springfield Township, Bucks County.

For a short history of the congregation see "Pennsylvania German (magazine) Volume IX (1908) page 198. (see also, historical sketch of the Springfield Lutheran congregation, in Fisher's "Lutheranism in Bucks County" page 23.)
