

WOLF'S CHAPEL CEMETERY

HAINES TOWNSHIP, CENTRE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

This cemetery is located about two miles east of Aaronsburg, at the site of "The Lower Fort". The Daughters of the American Revolution have erected a memorial on the location of the fort.

This cemetery is described in Linn's History of Centre County as located at "Wolf's School House". Linn called it the oldest burial ground in the township and listed a dozen of the oldest graves. All but one were on the present list as copied by Mr. and Mrs. Newton Spangler in 1928.
