In the name of God, Amen.

I, William R. Travis, of Muncy Borough, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, but considering the uncertainty of human life, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, to wit:

First, I order all my just debts and funeral expences to be duly paid, as soon as possible after my decease.

Second, I give, bequeath, and devise, unto my wife Charlotte, the three hundred dollars allowed by the exemption laws, and her dower and thirds at law out of my estate, according to the laws of Pennsylvania.

Third, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mrs. Anna Riley, my best large Bible, and as to my other children, to wit, Aaron, Christianna, Jered, Otis, Effalinda, Betsy, and Burdick, I leave them nothing, they having been already sufficiently provided for, to the extent of my will and desire.

Fourth, as to all the rest, residue, and remainder of all my estate, real and personal, whatsoever or where, I give, bequeath, and devise the same, unto my Grandson, George L. Riley, his heirs, and assigns, he being the son of James B. Riley and Anna Riley, my daughter aforesaid.

Fifth, I hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint George L. Riley, my said Grandson, to be the Executor of this will, hereby revoking all other wills, legacies, and bequests, by me heretofore made, and declaring this and no other to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this tenth day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty nine.

William Travis (Seal)

Signed, sealed and declared by the said testator as his last will and testament, in our presence.

Henry Johnson

Jacob Sheridan