Genealogical Credentials: CG, Certified Genealogist, CGL, and Certified Genealogical Lecturer are service marks of the Board for Certification of Genealogists®. Accredited Genealogist and AG are certification marks of the International Commission for Accreditation of Professional Genealogists. Individuals are licensed to use the credential designations after meeting the competency standards of those organizations. FASG designates fellows of the American Society of Genealogists, an honorary society limited to 50 living members chosen for the quality of their published genealogical scholarship. Fellowship in other societies may also be recognized by a postnominal designation, including FGSP for fellows of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania.
